University: Academy of Arts Banská Bystrica
Faculty: Faculty of Performing Arts
Course code: Komp/II.Ko20/22	Course title: KOMPOST – play of open scores and directed ensemble improvisation 1
Type, load and method of educational activities: Type: Practical Recommended load (in hours): Weekly: 2 Whole study period total: 26 Method : present
Number of credits: 1
Recommended semester of study: 1.
Degree of study: II.
Prerequisites :
Course completion conditions: The student will be evaluated both continuously during the semester (quality of home preparation and activity in class, i.e. ensemble rehearsals - 50 points) and at the end of the semester (practical performance - 50 points). The course ends with a public concert. A total of at least 91 points is required for a grade of A, at least 81 points for a grade of B, at least 71 points for a grade of C, at least 61 points for a grade of D, and at least 51 points for a grade of E. Credit will not be awarded to a student who has had more than 2 unexcused absences and has not performed in the final concert.
Educational outcomes (performance standard): The student is able to study and perform the chosen repertoire from the position of an ensemble player. The student is able to lead an instrumental ensemble artistically and organizationally. The student understands the basic principles and principles of ensemble playing. Is able to formulate a basic artistic-interpretive concept for the study of the chosen repertoire and is able to professionally guide its rehearsal when necessary. Is able to creatively deal with the interpretation of so-called open scores, can improvise on the basis of the chosen rules within the framework of so-called guided improvisation, can discuss this issue professionally with the conductor (artistic director) and other fellow players and arrive at a creative and professionally competent grasp of the given repertoire and prepare it for performance. Proficient in both traditional and experimental techniques of instrumental playing. Can appropriately combine playing on his/her own instrument with playing on the body, extended vocal techniques and playing on elementary instruments (of his/her own making) and a variety of so-called sound objects ('ready-mades'). He understands the issue of so-called "small home-made electronics". He can apply the acquired knowledge and skills appropriately in the pedagogical process.
Brief outline of course (contents standard): Principles and principles of ensemble playing. Different types of notation and recording of music. Study of open scores. Analysis of music notation and its interpretation. Rehearsal of selected repertoire and preparation for performance. Free and guided collective improvisation. Movement in the field between composition and improvisation. Advanced vocal and instrumental techniques. "Small home-made electronics", "ready-mades", sound

Pozn.: Hudobná literatúra - konkrétny repertoár sa bude prispôsobovať možnostiam daného ansámbľu, pričom bude vychádzať najmä z tzv. otvorených partitúr, ktoré sú určené pre akékoľvek obsadenie. V ostatných výskumoch sa ukazuje, že tento typ skladieb (teda predovšetkým grafické a verbálne partitúry) je mimoriadne vhodným materiálom pre výučbu ansámbovej hry na všetkých typoch hudobno-vzdelávacieho procesu. Adept magisterského štúdia tak získa skúsenosti v oblasti, ktorá je mimoriadne aktuálna a progresívna.

Course code: KN/ II.Kn65/22	Course title: Piano practice - Composition 1
Type, load and method of educational activities: Type: Practical Recommended load (in hours): Weekly: 1 Whole study period total: 13 Method : present
Number of credits: 1
Recommended semester of study: 1., 3.
Degree of study: II.
Prerequisites :
Course completion conditions: 70% - active participation in class 30% - practical exam (final performance) Minimum practical requirements for the completion of the course with regard to the level of maturity: Cadences in major keys, major scales in the circle of fifths (8, 3, 6), major decomposition, D7, zm.7 and turnarounds 3 etudes 1 Baroque composition 1 Classical sonata - 1st and 2nd movements Prerequisites for the practical exam (final performance): 1 etude 1 Baroque composition 1st movement of the Classical Sonata Playing by heart is not a prerequisite
Educational outcomes (performance standard): Upon successful completion of the 1st semester learning process, the student will be familiar with basic harmonic functions in practice. He/she will complete the study of scales in the fifth circle (in octaves, thirds, sextets), decomposition, chords and their inversions. It will reinforce the penetration of music theory and composition into practice. He/she will deepen his/her technical skills through the study of technically or concert-oriented etudes. The student will understand the stylistic practices of Baroque and Classical music and will be able to apply them to piano playing. The student will be able to recognise the differences in working with the means of expression of different musical styles. Acquire the necessary skill in playing piano compositions, or improvisational techniques, according to the level of maturity. The course pursues the development of musical imagination using one's own creative potential. Identification of the basic compositional practices of Baroque and Classical composers, which the student will acquire during his/her studies, will be a prerequisite for understanding performance. The content of the course includes a survey of works in the piano literature of the periods mentioned, which the student will become familiar with through practical interpretation.

Brief outline of course (contents standard):
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - play of cadences in close harmony, its laws - playing etudes with a focus on the development of piano technique, identification of a technical problem and its practical solution - playing difficult compositions of the Baroque and Classical periods - specifics of expressive means, technical performance, expression

Course code: KN/ II.Kn67/22	Course title: Piano practice - Composition 3
Type, load and method of educational activities: Type: Practical Recommended load (in hours): Weekly: 1 Whole study period total: 13 Method : present
Number of credits: 1
Recommended semester of study: 3.
Degree of study: II.
Prerequisites :
Course completion conditions: 70% - active participation in class 30% - practical exam (final performance) Minimum practical requirements for the completion of the course with regard to the level of maturity: Major scales in the quarto circle (8, 3, 6), major expansions, D7, zm.7 and turnarounds 3 etudes (min. 1 concert etude) 1 Baroque composition (J.S.Bach: TK) 1 Classical sonata - 1st and 2nd movements Prerequisites for the practical examination (final performance): 1 concert etude 1 Baroque composition (J.S.Bach: TK) 1 Classical composition Playing by heart is not a prerequisite
Educational outcomes (performance standard): Upon successful completion of the 3rd semester learning process, the student will complete the issues of major scales in the fifth circle(octaves, thirds, sixths), decomposition, chords and their reversals. The student will reinforce the penetration of music theory and composition into practice. He/she will deepen his/her technical skills by studying technically or concert-oriented etudes. The student will understand the stylistic practices of Baroque and Classical music and will be able to apply them to piano playing. The student will be able to recognise the differences in working with the means of expression of different musical styles. Acquire the necessary skill in playing piano compositions, or improvisational techniques, according to the level of maturity. The course pursues the development of musical imagination using one's own creative potential. Identification of the basic compositional practices of Baroque and Classical composers, which the student will acquire during his/her studies, will be a prerequisite for understanding performance. The content of the course includes a survey of works in the piano literature of the periods mentioned, which the student will become familiar with through practical interpretation. The selection of works assumes a more demanding piano repertoire.
Brief outline of course (contents standard):

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - major scales in the quarter circle (8, 3, 6), major decomposition, D7, note 7 and reversals - playing etudes and concert etudes with a focus on developing piano technique, expression, identifying technical and expressive problems and their practical solutions - playing challenging compositions of the Baroque and Classical periods - specifics of expressive means, technical performance, expression
